2. The home occupation shall meet all of the general requirements specific to administrative home occupations in Section 5.3(D)(15)(f);

Administrative Home Occupation Permit Conditions of Approval

In approving an Administrative Home Occupation Permit, the Community Development Department may impose such reasonable conditions and requirements as deemed necessary and appropriate to ensure continued compliance with ordinance requirements.

Effect of an Administrative Home Occupation Permit

The issuance of an Administrative Home Occupation Permit shall authorize only the activities and uses approved by the Community Development Department.

An Administrative Home Occupation Permit, including any conditions, shall run with the land and shall not be affected by a change in ownership. The initial Administrative Home Occupation Permit for a property may be issued for a period of one (1) year.

Renewals of existing Administrative Home Occupation Permits may be issued for periods of up to three (3) years at the discretion of the Community Development Department upon consideration of the operation as observed by staff and the level of complaints made about the home occupation.

An applicant shall not have a vested right to a permit renewal by reason of having obtained a previous permit. In applying for and accepting a permit, the permit holder agrees that his monetary investment in the home occupation will be fully amortized over the life of the permit and that a permit renewal will not be needed to amortize the investment. Each application for the renewal of a permit will be reviewed without taking into consideration that a previous permit has been granted. The previous granting or renewal of a permit shall not constitute a precedent or basis for the renewal of a permit.

Duration of Permit

Failure to begin the approved home occupation within six months of the date of approval will invalidate the permit.

Upon written request, one extension of six months may be granted by the Community Development Department if the applicant can show good cause.
